

CALL FOR SUBMISSION and PRESS RELEASE

60 SECONDS GERMANY

Call for submission has started for new competition by Webcuts and Farbwerte

Berlin, July 2010 - Creatives from around the world can submit their 60-second-movie. Each movie must express a personal position, perspective or attitude towards Germany while all styles and techniques (live action, stop motion, animation) are permitted. Submission deadline is September, 6th 2010.

Farbwerte meets Webcuts

The founders of the project "Farbwerte – SchwarzRotGold" (colour values – redblackgold) meet the makers of Webcuts — the international Internet Film Fest. Together they team up for a new video and film competition that focusses on the view on Germany.

The rules

- 1. The film must be exactly 60 seconds.
- 2. The German flag should play a central role.

All movies should express a personal position, perspective or attitude towards Germany. Filmmakers are invited to use any style or technique they prefer — whether it is live action or animation. Even mixing different styles within a submission is welcome. More information: www.farbwerte.com and www.webcuts.org

Dates

The best submissions will be presented and awarded in Berlin in early October 2010.
Submission deadline is September, 6th 2010.

The prizes

A Live 8 Package from Ableton, annual subscription of ZOOM — Das Magazin der Filmemacher, books by Fachverlag SCHIELE & SCHÖN and FREISTIL plus many more goods prizes.
